

With Maui's Girl Scouts

Vacation is over and we are getting back to work. I am sure you are all anxious to know how many troops we are to have this year, how many new Girl Scout Leaders must be found, etc.

The Lahaina side is fortunate this year in not having to change all leaders. Only two have gone. Miss Helen Van Keuren, Captain of the famous "Star of Bethlehem" troop is a real loss; but Lieutenant Gertrude Seong is fully equal to the task of acting as advisor to these splendid scouts and has agreed to accept the Captaincy. Miss Crowell, Lieutenant of the "Wild Rose" troop has left and we shall miss her. Captain Anna Maude Anderson has not as yet succeeded in getting her successor. Captain Luella Shaeffer of the "Mokihana" troop has returned; also, Mrs. Ralph Shaw, Captain of the Puukoli troop.

Central Maui is not so fortunate. The Wailuku troop has lost their Captain, Miss Grace Crockett, and Lieutenant, Miss Ruth Whitehead. Kahului is lucky in still retaining Mrs. E. B. Wicke for their Captain. We wish we might have more of the young married women acting as leaders of the Girl Scouts. We need a Lieutenant to take Miss DeKay's place and assist Mrs. Wicke—Who'll help?

Spreckelsville, the first registered troop on Maui has no Captain or Lieutenant and no prospects. We are calling for volunteers.

Keahua still retains Mrs. Foster Robinson as their leader and two of the new teachers, Miss Elsie Patrick and Miss Katherine Manley have volunteered to assist her. This promises splendid work from these scouts.

Mrs. Roswell Howe, formerly Miss Rita Rosecrans, has resigned the Captaincy of Paia Scouts. Miss Cressy Tilley is still to retain the Lieutenantcy. So many strong teachers this year, that we feel we ought surely to have a leader for this excellent troop. We shall miss Mrs. Howe and hope in a year or two to have her back with us.

Hamakua needs a Captain and Lieutenant more than most any troop on the island and we sincerely hope two strong leaders may be secured for these active little scouts.

Miss Gretchen Luce has agreed to take over the Haiku girls and will choose her own Lieutenant. This is a young troop and there is much to be done.

Makawao's captain has changed her name from Miss Yap to Mrs. Kong but still is interested in her scouts. No Lieutenant has been chosen in Miss Irene Miller's place.

Keokea Scouts have no leader; Miss Annie Ahsam, formerly the Captain, in on the mainland.

We hope to form a new troop at Wailuku, Waihee, Puunene and one for Maui High. There is a big need for a Citizen's Scout troop in this community and a training class for Leaders if the Girl Scout work is to efficiently continue.

Scout Leaders Will Meet

The first meeting of the Association tion of Maui Girl Scout Leaders will be held on Saturday at 10 o'clock September 23rd, at the home of Mrs. E. B. Wicke, Kahului, Maui.

Bring your bathing suits and have a swim before lunch. A picnic Lunch will be served by the old members to the new ones at one o'clock.

An important business meeting will be held immediately after this function. Officers are to be elected, plans for the year outlined and reports given. A full attendance is urged.

Roselani Troop, Kahului, held the first meeting of the year at Community House, Thursday afternoon. Most of the scouts were present and all were eager to begin the work of the year. Captain Wicke and the Director gave short talks to the girls.

The Fair is coming and we want the interest and co-operation of every Girl Scout Leader on Maui. If you have any original ideas, let us know.

National Headquarters has notified the Director that the following troop registrations have expired: 1 and 2 Troops Lahaina July 5th, 1922.

Kahului—July 13, 1922.
Paia—July 13, 1922.
Keokea—July 13, 1922.

Each Scout pays fifty cents a year and the troop registration is $1.50 for which a year's subscription to the "American Girl" (the Girl Scout Magazine) is given. The Captains and Lieutenants must re-register with their troop.

Who will be the first scout to pass the First Class Test? A gold locket is to be given by C. S. Childs of the Alexander House Settlement. Following is the test:
